

Some would say this is just a fantasy...but we've done it before:

Remember this?

The Old State House from the Riverfront, 1990

During the reconstruction of I-91, a section the highway was lowered

- to gain access to the Connecticut River from downtown
- to allow creation of a new riverfront park & plaza

1994

Before

After

