

City Government Working For You!

A Message from Mayor Pedro E. Segarra

Pedro E. Segarra is Hartford's 66th Mayor. He took the Oath of Office on June 25th, effective 5:01 p.m.

“This is a difficult period for the city, but we need to join efforts to move our City forward. There are too many people depending on us to get the job done and we cannot and must not let them down. These are also challenging financial times, so it is important to develop a quick and effective work plan. But this isn't just about government. It is about people and positive relationships. I plan to meet with people throughout the community in the coming weeks. I thank you for your support and look forward to taking Hartford to even greater heights and promise.”

Trumbull Street is now “Tumble Street,” so Hartford is rolling out the welcome mat (or in this case the tumbling mat). (Photo courtesy Andy Hart).

Speaking of tumbling....

The City of Hartford is close to acquiring the deteriorating H. B. Davis Building on Main and Trumbull Streets and demolishing it. The goal is to close on the property in August and begin tearing it down in September.
